

VICTORY ARCH was erected in City Hall Square at the end of World War I. Returning war heroes were given a rousing reception as they paraded beneath it.