Life as a Hilltopper

"My past four years as a Hilltopper turned me into the person I am today. I'll graduate not only with a diploma, but with life lessons under my belt. Durfee is the only place I know where you can get knocked down and get back up again."

-Alexa Caetano

"My life as a Durfee Hilltopper has been the most amazing and memorable experience. I've made so many friends and made so many great memories that I will never forget. It has been an eye opening experience to be a part of a huge class and family like the Class of 2013."

-Tara McCann

"High school is truly the best four years of your life and to see it come and go so quickly is mind-blowing. In that short time you create memories that will last a lifetime, and you create them with people you will adore for years to come."

-Branden Quental

"Throughout my four years at Durfee I've had problems, but I also had friends and teachers right by my side to tell me that it gets better. I've grown stronger as a person because of this school. I'm proud to be a Hilltopper, and I always will be."

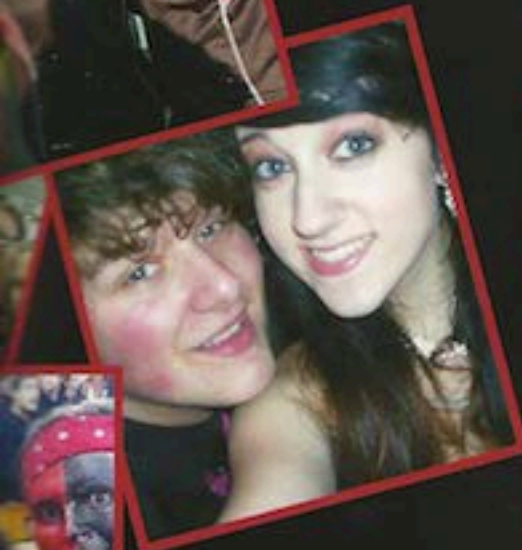

-Emily Borges

"Over the last four years I have matured and learned so much beyond the curriculum. I have been taught to accept and embrace difference, to conquer all challenges head on, and to always go above and beyond in my work whether it be in art or academics."

-Elizabeth Cadavid

"Being a Hilltopper has been the best experience of my life. Not only do I have a family outside of school, but when I walk through those red doors every morning, I know that the people in Durfee are also one big family. My family. No matter where I go in life I know they're always going to be there!"

Spirit Week 2012

Western Day

Marking the first day of Spirit Week was Western Day where Durfee was turned into the wild, wild west! Both Cowboys and Indians were decked out in hats, boots, and feathers!

Olympic Day

All honored their countries and dressed up as their favorite Olympians to celebrate Olympic Day! There were gold medals and American flags galore!

Character Day

Superheroes, dalmatians, and movie stars, oh my! This classic spirit day is always a favorite among the characters of Durfee.

Red and Black Day

Red and Black Day might just be the best day of the school year. With everyone wearing Durfee colors, it was hard not to feel a strong sense of Durfee Pride.

Class of 2013,

Graduation is upon us, congratulations! It has been a tremendous pleasure to work with each of you over the past four years. As a class your dedication to meeting the high expectations that have been laid out for you has been nothing short of impressive. I am hopeful that each of you will look back at your time at Durfee with pride and a brief sense of satisfaction. I say brief because as a class you have shown your collective potential and now bear the burden of responsibility to use your talents, energy and enthusiasm to improve the global world in which we all live. In closing, I wish each of you a future of success and happiness, and encourage you to remember that each of you may go your separate ways, but you will be united forever as members of Durfee High School's graduating "Class of 2013."

Sincerely, Ross Thibault

Class History

It was an early September morning when the Class of 2013 walked into Durfee High School for our first day as Hilltoppers. Throughout the next four years, we would undergo countless experiences that would shape us into the people that we are today. Durfee has affected us each in our own way, and whether we are doctors, musicians, or the President of The United States, we all remain proud to be Durfee Hilltoppers.

Our freshman year was a year of firsts. The first year of Durfee's new principal, Mr. Marshall, the first year of a new decade, and the first time the Class of 2013 sat at the desks and walked the halls of Durfee High School. On our first day, we were introduced to our first vice principal Mr. Desmarais, as well as our guidance counselors Mrs. Rotondo and Ms. LaCharity. Our first pep-rally foreshadowed the next four years of our lives as we picked the theme "The Future Stars of Durfee". We became the first class to experience "Durfee Discovery," where some found their passion. By January, we were busy forming the Sixth Man, who cheered on Durfee athletics for the first time. The Sixth Man would follow the girls' basketball team in 14 busses to the Boston Garden.

As we began our sophomore year, we welcomed Mr. Thibault as the new vice principal of the Class of 2013. We also welcomed Mrs. Dufrense as our new class advisor, who led us through a "wild" time at pep rally. Around the time that we would take MCAS for our last time, Durfee introduced its first 5K road race for the Women that Rock II concert. Shortly after watching a royal wedding from England, Durfee helped to aid Japan after their devastating tsunami and the Green Team started its recycling program throughout the school.

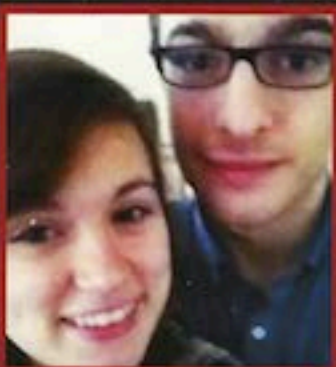

For the next two years, we would be known as the Durfee upperclassmen, and we held that position proudly. Our new class advisor, Ms. Galardi helped us to dance our way to a "Party Rock" theme for pep rally that many people might argue should have won over the 2012 pirates. We sang our hearts out with the Durfee Theatre Company's rendition of Grease, and the football team gained Coach Lajohn Jones, who transitioned the team through a tough learning experience. Mid-way through the year, Fall River was named one of the top 100 cities in America for young people.

We started off our senior year the right way, making Durfee history for the largest number of volunteers in the Seniors Helping Freshmen program. Our fourth and final class advisor, Mr. Podbelski, would later help us formulate a pep rally skit that would finally win us the competition. Our "Class of the Ages" theme brought the psychedelic 60's, groovy 70's, funky 80's, and rocking 90's together to connect our class one final time. During our senior year, we held "Mr. Hilltopper", Durfee's very own male pageant. We celebrated our long-awaited success at prom and after-prom, and when the sun came up, we knew that the next thing to look forward to was our graduation, the night that we would be center stage at Durfee for one final time. Now in the next stages of our lives, we look back at all of the memories that we shared. We came from all walks of life and as adults we each went our separate ways, but for four brief years, we were all connected as part of the Durfee High School Class of 2013. We continue to take pride in ourselves every day; we remain proud to be graduates, proud to be successful, proud to be Durfee Hilltoppers.

Proudly,

Hunter M. Reis

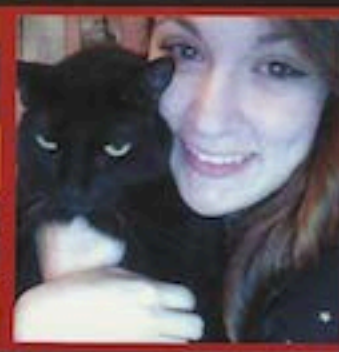

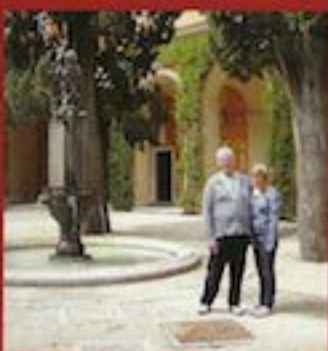

Editor's Page

The four years I've spent at Durfee have certainly been the most vivacious, enlightening, and all around brilliant years of my life. Durfee is where I've made my lifelong friends, learned pivotal lessons, and where I was transformed into the person I am today, who I am truly proud to be. When I was honored with the position of Yearbook Editor, I could not wait to create a book that captured our four years in the magnificent place we call school. I am immensely thankful for my Dad, Mom, and Ted for always believing in me. Emma and Sabrina thanks for being the closest things to sisters I'll ever have. Thank you Dani for always being there to make me smile, and Ladi and Basil for being the greatest pets a girl could have. Thanks Liz for being like my second mom, the wonderful Jane for being the greatest lunch buddy in the world and Morgan for always having a silly cat picture to make my day. Clovis and Clarise, you're the best lab partners ever! Thank you Devon, for being a pal and thanks Hunter for all your help, and more importantly your Twizzlers! To the Sea Lab, Green Team, and Press Club, thanks for giving me somewhere to fit in. Becky, I cannot thank you enough for all your beautiful pictures. To the amazing Abbey, thank you for inspiring me to take on this yearbook; I hope I made you proud! Thanks Gaelen for all your help, and Mrs. Silva, for everything you've done; I can't thank you enough for simply being an utterly superb adviser, and an even better friend. Last but not most certainly not least, I would like to thank the Class of 2013. I am beyond proud to be a part of this invincible group of people!
